Deputy Comptroller,
Central Intelligence Agency

25X1A9a

Dear Mr. [REDACTED]

Reference is made to my letter dated March 22, 1961, to the Deputy Director (Support), and to his replies dated April 7, 1961, and April 13, 1961.

As suggested by the DD/S, in his letter dated April 13, 1961, herewith is a copy of the revised letter that we plan to issue to the Honorable Paul J. Kilday on our review of selected activities of the Agency. This letter is submitted for Agency review, comments, and appropriate security clearance. In addition, there is submitted herewith a copy of a letter to the Director of Central Intelligence on the same subject, which letter is being submitted for appropriate security clearance.

The basic report draft has been revised to reflect agency comments. The major revisions to this basic draft are set forth below:

1. The body of the report has been revised to reflect Agency intent on our access to vouchered fund expenditures charged to confidential fund allotment. The draft presently shows that although we were denied access to these transactions, the Agency now has no objection to making them available for our review on a voucher-audit basis.
2. Appendix "D" has been eliminated from the draft.
3. Our comments on Intelligence Component Operating budget provisions for reserves for contingencies has been eliminated from the draft.
4. All segments of the report have been revised to reflect the Agency's comments and positions on the draft.

Since the revisions are based on Agency letters classified as confidential for security purposes, we do not plan to formally resubmit the revised basic draft to the Agency for further reviews.
